Riverside County Superior Court Hosts Visit of Chilean Judge

Riverside, CA – On January 17 and 21, 2003, Riverside County Superior Court will host visiting Chilean Judge Marco Antonio Flores. Judge Flores is recognized as a very forward-looking judge who is personally committed to the reform and implementation of the new criminal justice system in Chile. This visit will provide a forum for a lively and stimulating learning experience for all involved. During this visit, select judicial officers and court administrators will discuss and showcase programs, facilities, and aspects of Riverside County's progressive court system that are of interest to Judge Flores.

Judge Flores is visiting the United States as a participant in the U.S. Department of State's International Visitors Program (IVP). The IVP brings distinguished world leaders from all over the world to the United States every year to meet and confer with their professional counterparts.
